VOLUME XLII. NUMBER 2

IRONTON, MISSOURI.
THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1907.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Time for the eagle to scream.
No apples or peaches this year.
Flage, bunting and fire-crackers at Lopez's.

Raspberries, blackberries and dewberries.
The hotels are filled with summer visitors.

Cash prizes awarded at the Blue Ribbon Fair, July 4th.

Everything for everybody for 4th of July at Lopez's.

Never saw quite so many school book men in all our life before.

Don't forget the big 4th of July and semi-centennial celebration at Ironton.

C. N. Sawyer has sold his butcher shop in South Ironton to W. E. Conway.

Services will be held in St. Paul's church next Sunday at the usual hours.

The young folk had a dance at the Academy of Music last Thursday evening.

Remember the REGISTER will do your printing in first-class style and at low prices.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Lem. Curtis, Friday, June 21, 1907, a boy. All are well.

Herman Dinger is now making his home in the Roehry property on the mountain side.

The saloon men are getting up their petitions to file at the August term of county court.

The examinations last Friday and Saturday were attended by about a dozen teachers.

The hub factory was closed several days last week while some repairs were being made.

Free barbecue at Fourth of July celebration in Ironton. Everybody insured a good meal.

The District Epworth League Convention is in session in the M. E. church, North, in this city.

A. Rieke, we understand, will probably quit the saloon business when his license expires in August.

There will be a business meeting at the Baptist church, Wednesday evening, June 27th, at eight o'clock.

John Marshall was quite painfully injured by a kicking horse while out driving last Thursday morning.

My old friend, H. Davis, Esq., is an up-to-date gardener. I have tried some of the products of his "patch," and know.

A. Block, of Bismarck, sends us a postal card from Richmond, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Block are at the Jamestown exposition.

Lee Barger sends us a souvenir card from Fort Worth, Texas, where he is attending court as a witness for the Cotton Belt railroad.

Parties desiring to have stands at the Fourth of July celebration in Ironton, are requested to see the finance committee not later than July 1st.

The small boy has been having Fourth of July the past week, and will keep it up for several days after the 4th, unless the firecrackers run out.

The railroad has been busy the past month hauling Arkansas potatoes to the northern markets. The yield is far in excess of any previous year.

Some terrible wind and rain storms the past week. None in the Valley, but we've heard of them visiting the country all round about us.

Quite a lot of hickory logs are being hauled to the hub factory these days. They are sawed up and shipped away to be used for various purposes.

Uncle Hoffmeister, one of the old residents of Pilot Knob, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Phillips, Monday night, aged about ninety years.

Lost—Last Sunday evening, between Arcadia and north Ironton, a black sailor hat, with three fancy pins. Finder return to this office and receive reward.

The editor acknowledges the receipt of a card from Mr. and Mrs. Pillsbury, near Miss Nannie Brown, who are spending their honeymoon at the northern resorts.

Miss Mabel Reayburn on last Wednesday brought to this office a most exquisite bouquet of nasturtiums. They were as beautiful a lot of the flowers as we ever saw.

The brass band of the general staff of the Mexican army passed through here on No. 4 Sunday evening. The band is composed of sixty members and had a special car.

Bill Dooley died of tuberculosis at the State Hospital on last Friday morning. His death had been expected for some time. The remains were taken to Doe Run for burial. —Farmington News.

The eight hour law for telegraphers went into effect June 14th. Up to the present, however, the Iron Mountain railroad has paid no attention thereto, whatever, and the operators are still working twelve hours. There is a heavy penalty attached for failure to obey the law.

Five hours is the time generally required in making the run from the Valley to St. Louis these days. Miserable, miserable service. Not to be compared with what we had twenty years and more ago.

The Ironton and Pilot Knob baseball clubs played a game on the Ironton diamond Sunday, in which the Ironton team won by a score of 14 to 5. The Ironton club will probably go to Fredericktown next Sunday.

Add. Reese of Annapolis was in Centerville a day or two this week. While here, we understand, Mr. Reese purchased the saw mill on Sinking Creek, near the Tate farm, from Lee Jackson. —Centerville Outlook.

Paul Patton was circulating a petition about town this week asking Governor Folk to commute the sentence of Wm. Spauld, Jr., to imprisonment in the penitentiary, and secured many signatures. —Hillsboro New Era.

Mr. McEntire, an attorney from St. Louis, representing Mrs. V. C. Raney in her suit for divorce, took deposition before Notary Public Damron last Thursday. The case will be tried in the circuit court in St. Louis in the near future.

The infant child of Rev. C. H. Schlesselman was attacked with spinal meningitis Monday noon and lived but a few hours. We extend condolence to the bereaved family in their sudden and unexpected bereavement. —Bismarck Gazette.

There will be a union temperance meeting at the Presbyterian church, next Sabbath evening, at 8 o'clock. Four churches of the Valley unite in this meeting, and the programme will be of special interest. Everybody is invited to this service.

The Ironton ball team regularly organized Monday night by electing J. S. Conway, manager, and Emil Roehry field captain. The new uniforms have been received and the boys expect to shine like diamonds the next time they appear in public.

Mrs. Alex. R. Fletcher, of Arcadia, arrived in the city yesterday for a visit of several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pipkin. She was accompanied by her little brother, Harold, who has been visiting in Arcadia for the past two weeks. —Poplar Bluff Democrat.

Louis Schwaner, our harness maker, stole a march on his friends last week and went over to Pilot Knob and took unto himself a helpmate, her who was Miss Gerstemeier. The band gave them a hearty welcome Thursday evening when they came to their home in this city. —Fredericktown Tribune.

Mayfield Huff, son of Arthur Huff of Pilot Knob, suffered quite a painful accident while out on the river with a fishing party Tuesday afternoon. Mayfield and Blow Martin, colored, were having some fun with a fishing gig when Blow made a bad throw and the gig entered Mayfield's foot. He is getting along as well as could be expected.

We understand that W. H. Smollinger, the owner of the race track and adjacent property at Iron Mountain, is trying to have the adjoining counties establish a district fair at that place. Mr. Smollinger, it is said, will do his part. The matter should be looked into. Such an association would be of great benefit to all the counties participating.

Station Agent Downey one day last week turned loose a basket of carrier-pigeons from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. There were ten birds in the lot and every one of them got back to Milwaukee in twenty-four hours. The first pigeon arrived in just ten hours and twenty-five minutes after being liberated at Ironton. The distance is four hundred miles on an air line.

Mike Hughes, a young man from Graniteville, was arraigned before Squire Rasche Tuesday on the charge of burglarizing the home of John Hado, a Hungarian, near Sheahan's quarry, about the latter part of May. He was held for the circuit court in the sum of $500 bond, in default of which he went to jail, where he will likely remain until October next. There are two other charges of burglary against Hughes, but he waived examination as to them.

Mrs. August Suhr, the wife of a farmer living four miles west of this city, while yawning Sunday night, dislocated her jaw and for several hours was unable to talk. About seventy-five neighbors gathered in and gazed with wondering eyes at the remarkable spectacle of a woman who could not talk. The drug stores and Drs' offices are receiving numerous calls these days for something "to make the old woman yawn." —Oak Ridge Indicator.

Mr. Jack Semands and Miss Estelle Hopson, of De Soto, were married in St. Louis, Tuesday, June 18th, in the Cathedral. On account of the recent bereavements in the Hopson family the young couple went to St. Louis to be wed, and the words that made them man and wife were spoken by Rev. Arthur Brittain, who was for many years rector of Trinity Episcopal church of this city. The only attendants were Mr. Paul Beisbarth and Miss Augusta Boyne. —De Soto Republican.

E. H. Amelung, Superintendent of the Prudential Life Insurance Company, at New Albany, Indiana, visited relatives at Pilot Knob the past week. We acknowledge a pleasant call from Mr. Amelung Monday, and he presented us with a very handsome paper knife—a souvenir of the Prudential. Ed. is an old Pilot Knob boy and he has made "good" in the business world. He left for New Albany Tuesday, accompanied by his mother, who will make a visit with him. They expect to spend a day at Granite City, where a daughter of Henry Amelung will be married Wednesday.

DIED—At his home in Flatwoods, Iron county, Mo., on Monday, June 24, 1907, at 5 o'clock P. M., Cadmus C. Lashley, aged 87 years. He had long suffered from the infirmities of age, and death was a happy release from them. So is broken another connecting link between the rapidly receding past and the elusive present. I knew Mr. Lashley many years, and esteemed him as an estimable citizen. I have not the data now to give fitting tribute to his memory, but shall do so hereafter. He was a landmark in the history of the county.

My neighbor has the God-given right to prohibit himself from doing anything he thinks he ought not to do; but I object to his extending that jurisdiction over me in matters pertaining to myself alone. I claim to be as capable to act for myself as he is for himself. Maybe the judgment that calls upon me to deny myself certain things, would, if I attempted to exercise it against him, arouse indignant protest. He would resent my interference with him as I do his with me. If I drink a glass of beer or indulge in a mint julep I trespass upon none of his rights, and I need not his guardianship either by implication or statute. But Lord, Lord! how self-satisfying it is to our natures to condemn the sins we are inclined to. By damning those we have no mind to! I cannot recall the exact phrasing Bobbie Burns used in these lines, but their meaning is correctly given.

It will probably be an item of news to most of our readers that our postmaster is not compelled to make change for you when you make purchases at Uncle Sam's office. This is a queer rule that not one in a thousand persons know. Buyers of stamps or any purchase at a post-office must furnish their own change, i. e., the postmaster could insist on the buyer furnishing his own change if he sees fit to do it; but usually the postmaster is glad enough to get rid of his "chicken feed," and he is always ready and willing to accommodate the public by making all the change it asks for. If a man wishes to buy fifty cents worth of stamps and has but a silver dollar, he would be compelled to buy a dollar's worth of stamps or go and get his silver dollar changed or do without his stamps if the postmaster was stubborn and refused to make change for him. This is the law, and a queer one, according to our way of thinking. And postmasters are not compelled to take more than twenty-five pennies at one time, if they do not want them.

The new game law, passed by the late Legislature is now in effect. The open season for game birds is as follows: Wild turkey, all of December and January; quail, all of November and December; prairie chicken cannot be killed until 1910, and the open season then will be from November 15 to December 15; ducks and geese, from September 15 to April 30; snipe, same as ducks and geese; plover, woodcock, doves, August 1 to December 31. Penalty for killing game birds out of season, $25 to $50 for each offense and $5 for each bird. Ruffed grouse, Mongolian, Chinese and English pheasants and all other imported game birds protected until December 1, 1910; open season after that date is November 15 to December 15. The use of boats, swivel or pump guns in hunting birds on water and the use of blinds in hunting on ice is prohibited. The use of pitfalls, nets, traps and drugs in hunting is prohibited. The open season for deer is November and December. The use of artificial light in killing deer is prohibited. Penalty $25 to $100.

One evening last week I counted fifteen cows seeking scanty subsistence along the street whereon I reside. Nine of the fifteen were bolls, and their discordant clanging was enough to awaken the dead. The sidewalks and street were left in fine condition for the exercise of in-and-out dodging necessary to the avoidance of the reminders the quadrupeds left behind them. As I saw and heard, I thought how flexible to the will is the requirement of the average idea of individual right! If I go into my neighbor's chicken-coop and steal his chickens or take from his house any article that may be of value or use to me, I am dishonest and amenable to the pains and penalties of the statutes, and am liable to arrest and punishment if I disturb his peace in any way; but I may turn my cattle out to break his gate, forage and destroy his garden, and make existence hideous to him by the clangor of the bells provided for the purpose, without thought of wrong, sting of conscience, or danger of prosecution! And my abatement of the Golden Rule makes no detriment to my devout Christianity, which frowns upon the dance, excommunicates the unbeliever, and takes me to church thrice a week!

Dorothy, the ten-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Blanks, narrowly escaped death and was seriously hurt by being hurled from a hand or push car, last Thursday evening, at Pilot Knob, where she was visiting. The fall bruised her badly about the body and rendered her unconscious for hours, though fortunately no bones were broken, and she is now out of danger of any internal injury. With a number of other children she was riding in an old handcar on a spur of the Iron Mountain railroad, onto which freight cars are occasionally pushed. They would start the car down grade at one end of the spur, and the momentum would carry them up the grade to the other end. The running gear of the car being old and rusty, this had been successfully done a number of times before, but some of the boys concluded that they would get up the running gear. Nearly a dozen children piled onto the car and it was started. It gained a tremendous momentum, it is estimated at about forty miles an hour, and the children all jumped or fell off except Dorothy, who was on one corner of the rear end. There was a curve in the track at the top of the grade and midway of this curve stood a box car. The hand car crashed into this, and Dorothy, being on the side of the hand car to the outside of the curve, was hurled forward, missing the box car, and thrown to the ground with terrible force. Had her position on the car been different she would have been crushed to death. It is a wonder that she was not more seriously hurt than she was from the impact of her fall. —Farmington Times.

The Lopez Store Co. has received a large quantity of new goods this week, especially adapted to the heated season.
